

Factory's history

Karolina was established August 1858 by Silber and Caplekin Traugott Silber under the name of Königszell

From its very beginning the factory has started to produce high class porcelain that was shown already

On the 1873 Vienna International Exhibition it was awarded with a diploma.

After the World War II factory was taken over by Karolina government and in 1954 was taken over by Karolina

In 1993 Karolina has been privatized. Now shares are owned only by the current and ex factory employees

